Role: Software Engineer / IT Consultant

Type: Permanent

Location: Beyoglu/Istanbul

Your Role as Software Engineer / IT Consultant

As a software engineer you will work with senior consultants and security architects, implementing service integration and security configuration on the customer platform, as well as implementing new features and enhancements. You will be involved in incident and troubleshooting process. You will even execute minor database administrator and developer duties. Consultant to join our developer team, will have a particular focus on providing integration and operation support of the solution and working closely with multiple clients on the daily operation.

Technical skills:
- BSc in related discipline i.e Computer Science, Mathematics
- Experience working with object-oriented programming and scripting languages
  - C#, Java
  - Java Script, Windows Shell Scripting
- Have experience working with relational databases and directory services such as:
  - SQL Server, Oracle
  - MS Active Directories, LDAP
- Awareness of IT-Security
- Knowledge of UML framework
- Handling Microsoft Office
  - Excel, Word, Powerpoint, Visio
- Nice to have: SAP basic Knowledge

The right person will also have the following skills:
- Strong communication, presentation and facilitation skills in English
- Nice to have: German is also desirable, but not mandatory
- Ability to work on your own initiative as well as part of a team
- Have a flexible working style
- Strong analytical ability in relation to solving technical issues and flexibility in handling multiple issues at once
- Be curious and have a willingness to learn

About the company:

You will work with an IT security consultancy company based in Munich now expanding its operations in Istanbul with a new team. The company provides IT security solutions (e.g. identity and access management) delivering a full-service experience to German clients with worldwide operating companies from various industries like financial services and automotive. We are now looking for IT Security specialists to join our growing development team.

Please contact Ceren Alkis

E-mail: ceren.alkis@carl-it.de